

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. Again and again you call us to love you with our whole heart, understanding, and strength; such love demands that we seek justice for those who are oppressed, poor and forgotten. God, we hear your call, but all around us are competing calls of worldly loyalties, political parties and public acclaim. Throughout this election season we have seen the divisions in this nation divide neighbors and we have been more inclined to debate than pray. Help us as good citizens to respect neighbors whose views differ from ours, so that without partisan anger we may work out issues that divide us. Forgive our sins, and help us to live in your light, and walk in your ways, for the sake of Jesus our Savior.

RESPONDING TO THE WORD

Hymn No. 262 God of the Ages, Whose Almighty Hand National

Affirmation of Faith (Unison) From A Brief Statement of Faith (PCUSA)

In a broken and fearful world
the Spirit gives us courage to pray without ceasing,
to witness among all peoples to Christ as Lord and Savior,
to unmask idolatries in church and culture,
to hear the voices of peoples long silenced,
and to work with others for justice, freedom, and peace.
In gratitude to God, empowered by the Spirit,
we strive to serve Christ in our daily tasks
and to live holy and joyful lives, even as we watch for God’s new heaven and new earth,
praying, “Come, Lord Jesus!”

CELEBRATION OF WORSHIP
Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time
Sunday, November 13, 2016
GATHERING AROUND THE WORD

The acolyte in today's worship brings the light of Christ into the sanctuary at the beginning of the service. At the end of worship, as we are called into service in our church, across our city, and beyond, the light of Christ leads us out into the world.

Silent Meditation:

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers.

Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are. Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Romans 12: 9-18

*Call to Worship

Skies darken and clouds come menacing

The Light of the World is Jesus

The news is full of violence and fear

The Light of the World is Jesus

The world feels threatening and cold

The Light of the World is Jesus

Come, follow the Light, and share the Light

We follow Jesus our Savior, who is our Hope.

We worship together, growing in the Light of the World.

In Christ there is no darkness at all!

The Light of the World is Jesus! Amen!
