Invitation to the Table

This is the table, not of the Church, but of the Lord. It is to be made ready for those who love Him and who want to love Him more. So come, you who have much faith and you who have little. You who have been here often and you who have not been for a long time. You who have tried to follow and you who have failed. Come not because it is I who invite you: it is our Lord.

It is our Lord’s will that those who want Him should meet Him here.

Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to God

It is right that we give our thanks and praise.

Gratitude, praise, hearts lifted high, voices full and joyful...these You deserve. For when we were nothing, You made us something. When we had no name and no faith and no future, You called us Your children. When we lost our way or turned away, You did not abandon us. When we came back to You, Your arms opened wide in welcome. And look, You prepare a table for us offering not just bread, not just wine, but Your very self so that we may be filled, forgiven, healed, blessed and made new again. You are worth all our pain and all our praise. So now, in gratitude, we join our voices to those of the Church on earth and in heaven:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might.

Heaven and earth are full of Your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Lord God, as we come to share the richness of Your table we cannot forget the rawness of the earth. We cannot take bread and forget those who are hungry. Your world is one world and we are stewards of its nourishment.

Lord, put our prosperity at the service of the poor.

We cannot take wine and forget those who are thirsty. The ground and the rootless, the earth and its weary people cry out for justice.

Lord, put our fullness at the service of the empty.

We cannot hear Your words of peace and forget the world at war.

Show us quickly, Lord, how to turn weapons into welcome signs and the lust for power into a desire for peace.

We cannot celebrate the feast of Your family and forget our divisions. We are one in spirit, but not in fact. History and hurt still dismember us.

Lord, heal Your church in every brokenness.

So, as we do in this place what You did in an upstairs room, send down Your Holy Spirit on us and on these gifts of bread and wine that they may become for us Your body, healing, forgiving, and making us whole; and that we may become for You, Your body, loving and caring in the world until Your kingdom comes.

Amen.

The Distribution of the Bread and the Cup

Prayer after All are Served

In gratitude, in deep gratitude for this moment, this place, these people we give ourselves to You. Send us out to live as changed people, because we have been fed by the living Lord and cannot remain the same. Ask much from us, expect much from us, enable much by us, encourage many through us. Lord, may we live to Your glory, both as inhabitants of earth and citizens of the commonwealth of heaven. Amen.

If you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday.

*Call to Worship

If we met You, Lord Jesus we might not think You were on a mission. Your talk would be of common and curious things:

salt, light, dough, lost lambs, lost coins, paying taxes, hosting a meal, wise virgins and foolish house builders.

We would not know You were on a mission, we would think You were making sense of life, lighting up the ordinary, identifying the truth.

When next You look with compassion on the world and need mission done in Your way, Lord, send us.

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Almighty One, we come before You, confessing that we are not consistent in Your ways. We say one thing and do another. We say we love, then act out in hate. We say we care for our neighbors, but then we are silent when prejudices persist. Shine Your light in us. Call us back to Your ways. Help us to be consistent in living out Your truth in this world. Guide us away from self-preservation and instead, hold us to Your call to be last of all and servant of all. For it is in losing ourselves that we gain our lives. For it is in fully loving You that we become all of who You have intended us to be. In the name of Christ we pray. Amen.
