

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

O Lord, our God, who has created us for life together, and who takes delight in the unity of Your people; we confess our impatience and frustration with life in community.

We are quick to complain about the shortcomings of others, and slow to acknowledge our own faults.

We harbor resentments for the ways we have been mistreated, and expect quick forgiveness from those we have harmed.

We live as though...

...No one else can do anything as well as I can.

...The ideas and actions of others are unsatisfactory.

...All that matters is me, myself, and I.

O Lord, have mercy on us.

O Lord, we plead for Your healing of our sin sickness.

In the name of Christ our savior.

Apostles’ Creed

“I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.”

“I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.”

Prayers of the People and Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

CELEBRATION OF WORSHIP

Second Sunday after Pentecost

Fathers' Day

18 June 2017

GATHERING AROUND THE WORD

The acolyte in today's worship brings the light of Christ into the sanctuary at the beginning of the service. At the end of worship, as we are called into service in our church, across our city, and beyond, the light of Christ leads us out into the world.

Silent Meditation:

We rejoice in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also rejoice in our sufferings; knowing that suffering produces endurance; and endurance produces character; and character produces hope; and hope does not disappoint us; because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. ~ Romans 5:2-5

*Call to Worship - from Psalm 116

I love the Lord because He has heard my voice and my supplications.
Because He inclined His ear to me, therefore I will call on Him as long as I live.

The snares of death encompassed me; I suffered distress and anguish.
Then I called on the name of the Lord, "O Lord, I pray, save my life!"
For You have delivered my soul from death, my eyes from tears, my feet from stumbling.

I kept my faith, even when I said, "I am greatly afflicted."
What should I return to the Lord for all His bounty to me?
I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord.
I will pay my vows to the Lord in the presence of all His people.

Let us worship God!
The Lord's name be praised!
