We thank You that Jesus was born among us; that He lived our common life on earth; that He suffered and died for us; that He rose again; and that He is always present through the Holy Spirit.

We thank You that we can live in the faith that Your kingdom will come, and that in life, in death, and beyond death You are with us.

Holy Lord God, by what we do here in remembrance of Christ we celebrate His perfect sacrifice on the cross and His glorious resurrection and ascension; we declare that He is Lord of all; and we prepare for His coming in His kingdom. We pray that through Your Holy Spirit this bread may be for us the body of Christ and this wine the blood of Christ. Accept our sacrifice of praise; and as we eat and drink at His command unite us to Christ as one body in Him, and give us strength to serve You in the world. And to You, one holy and eternal God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, we give praise and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

Go with us Lord, so that we can love in all sincerity, loathing what is evil and clinging to what is good. We will be devoted to one another as brothers and sisters, honoring each other above ourselves; we will be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer. We will share with God's people who are in need and practice hospitality. With Your help we will bless those who persecute us, blessing and not cursing. We will not repay evil for evil. We will not be overcome by evil, but by the power of Your Spirit we will overcome evil with good. Go with us good Lord and live in us the life of the Kingdom. Amen.

4 March 2018

GATHERING AROUND THE WORD

The acolyte in today's worship brings the light of Christ into the sanctuary at the beginning of the service. At the end of worship, as we are called into service in our church, across our city, and beyond, the light of Christ leads us out into the world.

Silent Meditation:

He has told you, O mortal, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

*Call to Worship

Jesus calls us to love our God and love our neighbors as ourselves.

Go, and do likewise.

God tells us through the prophets to stand up for the poor and the oppressed.

Go, and do likewise.

Jesus tells us to welcome one another as a little child.

Go, and do likewise.

God has shown us the way of faith.

Come, let us worship our God.

Come, let us live out our faithfulness to God through our faithfulness to others.

Come, let us love one another. Go and do likewise. Amen.

Prayers for Lent

During the season of Lent we will begin with a short unison prayer to center us and move into an extended period of "silence". Our pianist will play contemplative music to allow folks time to visit one or all of the prayer centers. Everyone is asked to keep silence as they either visit the centers or pray in their seat. The cue to move back to your seat is when the choir and pianist lead us in singing the first verse of "Lord, Make Us Servants of Your Peace" found on page 374 in the hymnal.

God of justice, Your word is light and truth. Let Your face shine on us to restore us, that we may walk in Your way, seeking justice and doing good. Amen.
