Daily Morning Worship for 40 Days

In Pastor Hart's absence, as he continues his sabbatical, Elder Bryan Wright will offer a Lenten Observance Discipline every morning for 40 days during Lent. He is leading a 20 minute devotional at 7:00 a.m. in the Sanctuary for any who wish to participate. The forty days of Lent are Monday through Saturday from Ash Wednesday, March 1, through the Saturday before Easter, April 15. Sundays are not included in Lent. The devotion includes meditative music, reading from the Presbyterians Today 2017 Lenten Devotional, Meeting Jesus, and quiet reflection on a theme for the day. Participants may be on their way by 7:20a.m. each morning.

Deepen Your Lenten Journey in one of the following ways this week.

Through prayer: visit the Prayer Centers in the Sanctuary, on a day other than Sunday.

Through service: collect a dollar for every meal you eat this week and donate to the Food Pantry.

Through fasting: disconnect from Social Media for 7 days.

Through prayer: Read Psalm 51 everyday this week... maybe read a different translation each time.

Through service: Call a member of the congregation you've not seen in a while and check on them.

Through fasting: Pay attention to what you drink at meal time...choose water over soft drinks or tea.

Prayer Centers in Worship

This Lenten Season you will have the opportunity to experience prayer in a variety of ways. Each Sunday different Prayer Centers will be set up around the Sanctuary. During the service a time will be set aside when you can chose to visit one or more of the centers while our pianist, Edward Neeman, plays beautiful music. This time will be yours to center yourself either through coloring, drawing, listening, writing or more. The prayer centers will be introduced each Sunday and will stay in place through Thursday morning for anyone to come and visit while the church is open. Heighten your awareness of God through prayer this Lent by joining us in worship.

The 2017 Scotland and Presbyterian Heritage Customized Tour for 2017 is being re-introduced with new travel dates! September 4-September 13, 2017.

All-inclusive rate is $3,870 per person, and includes air and ground transportation, lodging, and gratuities to the tour director and motor coach driver! Air will be round-trip Atlanta to Glasgow and returning Edinburgh to Atlanta. Please note that if a lower airfare rate is available or if someone plans to travel using mileage, air can be booked outside the group reservation.

Deposit is $250 per person due March 15, 2017, and should be sent "ATTN: Jane Shelton" at:

South Georgia Travel
1300 Baytree Road
Valdosta, GA 31602

Final payment is June 1, 2017.

We need 20 passengers to have this group happen, since it is a customized tour for Flint River Presbytery; and based on comments, I believe we can reach that number fairly quickly! If we go over 24 passengers, the rate will drop by $150 per person!!

A Message from the Wilderness

Since I left Valdosta my time in Atlanta has been relaxing and stress-free, except whenever I have to go somewhere in Atlanta traffic! As you are aware, I am doing what I can to learn about the religion of Islam. I am doing this by reading many books on the subject. I have read the entire Qur'an (an English translation, or course.)

I am also learning by meeting Muslims who live and work in Atlanta. So far I have visited two mosques, one of which included observing Friday prayers. I have visits to two more mosques scheduled. There are over 75 mosques in Atlanta. I had a casual conversation at a local Arabian restaurant with the Imam of the Madina Institute Mosque, along with several of his members, and 7 college age students (3 men and 4 women) who are doing graduate studies at the Institute in Arabic. The Imam travels the world to oversee a network of Institutes he has founded. He had returned the day before from Malaysia and was leaving the next morning for Toronto, Canada to participate in a conference on peace and non-violence. He told me that they focus on educating young men and women in a diligent effort to keep them from being radicalized in militant and hostile environments.

I have also had opportunity to attend meetings and panel discussions focused on interfaith relationships. One panel included two rabbis, a Muslim woman and a Muslim man, and a Christian life-coach. It was organized by Dr. Deanna Womack who teaches at Emory's Candler School of Theology. The other panel was held in conjunction with the Annual Meeting of the Faith Alliance of Metro Atlanta (FAMA), an interfaith organization. It included a woman who is an American citizen from India and is the Deputy Chief of Staff for the Chairman of the Fulton County Commission; an Atlanta businessman active in interfaith dialog; and a woman who is Director of Sponsorships for Atlanta Habitat for Humanity.

I have enjoyed immensely the chance to be a worship participant and to do so at different churches. In addition to Sunday service at Shallowford Presbyterian Church, I have also attended worship at Northside Drive Baptist Church (a sojourn among the dunked that did not result in a lightning strike from heaven) and at First Presbyterian Church, Atlanta – where, incidentally (or providentially) I met up with Mike Dover and his wife. He is the lawyer in Valdosta who did the closing on our house. They were visiting in Atlanta for the weekend and came to worship at First Presbyterian where his sister and brother-in-law are members.

This is a mere thumbnail sketch of what I have been doing with my time here. In summary, here are a few of the things I am coming to know more fully in these experiences:

- ~ A firmer grasp of the hope and joy I have in the Gospel of Christ.
- ~ The importance of knowing what I believe and why I believe it.
- ~ The increasingly important task of knowing Islam and our Muslim neighbors.
- ~ The conviction that engaging in thoughtful and respectful contact with Muslims and people of other faiths, from the standpoint of my faith in Christ, will in fact deepen my faith, not threaten it.

I am sincerely thankful for the opportunity you have given me for this experience of and growth in grace. It is all that I had hoped for and more (so far – and it only promises to be get better!)

Grace and peace to you all in Christ.

Pastor Hart

Thursday Morning Bible Study

Save the Date – Washington DC Adult Mission Trip

Plans are underway for a return trip to our nation's capitol next fall. The trip will be for adults at Trinity interested in working in various service agencies in Washington. We will be staying at Capitol Hill Presbyterian Church, just a three block walk from the US Capitol. This trip is being jointly held with Memorial Presbyterian Church, St Augustine, Florida, where Jim and Julie Reffel are members. They are helping to organize their end of the trip and will be attending. This Mission Trip will cost $400 per person plus airfare. Save the dates, October 15-21, 2017.
