

It was a busy Tuesday at Trinity this week. Elections in the Fellowship Hall pushed our Dutch Lunch Bunch to the Emmaus Room for their monthly meeting. A good time was had by the Dutch Lunch Bunch crew around the big table!

Prayers for Bangladesh 21 May 2018

God of compassion and grace, we pray for Meem, a 10-year-old girl begging on a train platform in a crowded rail station on the north end of Dhaka, Bangladesh. She often hops a train down to the city's south station to beg there as well. She feeds herself at sidewalk food stands with whatever she can earn during the day and at night sleeps with scores of other girls on the floor of a night shelter for street children in this city of 18 million people. Lord, as we hear about the overwhelming numbers of children in the world who live in extreme poverty and hardship, remind us that you care for each one individually, as you do Meem. Empower your Church to be an instrument of your grace in leading her and each of your children into the fullness of life, in the name of Christ the Savior we pray. Amen.

Kudos to Trinity Picnic Helpers!

Many thanks for all the hard work from volunteers assisting with last week's "Indoor Picnic!" All who attended enjoyed relaxed fellowship with hamburgers and hotdogs. The following assisted with food preparation, set-up, and serving: Suzi Clarke, Mili Collins, Mike Cross, Denise Dupras, Brian Greene, Jane Gore, Debbie Hart, Chuk Holzworth, Leonard & Mickeala Mittelstadt, Bob & Deb Radabaugh, and David Roe. Many others assisted with clean-up. Thank you all for your time and good efforts.

Women's Summer Bible Study

Ladies of Trinity a summer Bible Study is in the works just for you! Judy Bickers has agreed to teach a class that will meet seven times in the evenings this summer using Jen Hatmaker's book, Seven: An Experimental Mutiny Against Excess. Addressing seven areas of excess in a typical American family's life the study helps make simpler choices that fight back against the modern-day disease of greed, materialism and overindulgence. The book and workbook are available at Amazon as well as on her website, www.jenhatmaker.com. The first meeting will be Wednesday, June 6th at 6:00pm in the Emmaus Room.
