

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Loving Jesus, we confess that sometimes we don't want to help others. We want to help ourselves first. We are tired of working so hard. We have so much to do. We have so little time. We want someone else to do the work. But You continue to call us to the work of justice. You continue to remind us that You came so that we might have life. Your death and resurrection continue to remind us that we must put other's needs above our desires. Call to us to rise, to roll up our sleeves, and to do the work You have given us to do.

RESPONDING TO THE WORD

Hymn No. 718 Take Up Your Cross, the Savior Said Bourbon

Affirmation of Faith (Unison) Apostles' Creed

"I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead."

"I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen."

Prayers of the People and Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

14 October 2018

GATHERING AROUND THE WORD

The acolyte in today's worship brings the light of Christ into the sanctuary at the beginning of the service. At the end of worship, as we are called into service in our church, across our city, and beyond, the light of Christ leads us out into the world.

Silent Meditation

"And real happiness will come, not in gratifying our desires or in gaining transient pleasures, but in accomplishing God's will for us; even as we pray every day: "thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven."
~ Bernard of Clairvaux, On Loving God

Pre Service Music "Arm, arm ye brave!" George Frideric Handel from Judas Maccabeus
Zackary Serrott - Baritone Maila Leila Springfield - Piano

Welcome and Announcements

Prelude A Simple Waltz Giulio Garner

The Lighting of the Candles

Choral Introit Glorify the Lord With Me Hal Hopson

*Processional Hymn No. 1 Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty! Nicaea

*Call to Worship - based on Psalm 22

Let our praise for all that God has done resound within and beyond these walls.
You are holy, O God of Israel!
When all people turn to God and worship God:
The poor shall eat and be satisfied, and justice and peace will surely embrace present and future generations.
Therefore, in thanksgiving for all that God has done, let our lives and our love proclaim the message of God's gracious and liberating acts.
We will proclaim the name of the Lord to future generations, so that all shall worship before the Lord! Hallelujah!
